

Pre-Conference Event: Industry Panel

DATE: Monday 4th July, 5.30 (for 6.00pm)

VENUE: Bankwest Theatre, John Curtin Gallery - Curtin University Kent Street, Bentley

COST: $10.00 ($5.00 Students, alumni and non-waged)

A panel of industry, government representatives and independent practitioners explore the issues confronting documentary makers and distributors as new platforms impact on the way documentary and actuality material is created to meet continually evolving audience expectations. The lead question sets up discussion about what audiences want, how they view material, and how producers and distributors can address those divergent and sometimes apparently conflicting demands.

Drinks and light refreshments will be served in the John Curtin Gallery on arrival.

Some tickets will be available at the door, but you can reserve your place by emailing your interest to: ASPERA@curtin.edu.au by Sunday July 3.
